Council Actions from January 22 meeting:

At its January 22, 2013 meeting, the City Council took the following actions:

- Authorized the City's participation in the Minnesota GreenStep Cities program. The Minnesota GreenStep Cities program is designed to help cities achieve their sustainability and quality-of-life goals.
- Authorized preparation of plans and specifications for road improvements for the County Road D and Cottage Place Road reconstruction. Estimated costs for this project are $1.7 million. This reconstruction of County Road D will be a joint project with the City of Roseville.
- Authorized preparation of plans and specifications for improvements to Red Fox Road. These improvements will improve the traffic flow in the expanding retail area near Super Target.
