Council Connection

Recent Council Actions from May 20 Meeting

- Adopted the revisions of the Municipal Code regarding residential setbacks. The changes reduce the minimum front yard setback for structures. The purpose of the ordinance changes are to increase flexibility in design alternatives and to encourage reinvestment and remodeling of homes in the City.
- Approved the bid from Arnt Construction Company for the Owasso Street, County Road E and Victoria Street Reconstruction project in the amount of $1,768,830. The Council also approved a change order that includes the installation of water and sewer main, grading, installation of granular base for the Owasso Street road realignment in the amount of $410,428. This road realignment project is necessary for the Lakeview Terrace apartment project and is being paid for through TIF funding, Livable Communities grant monies, Ramsey County and assessments.
- Authorized the Joint Powers Agreement with the City of North Oaks for Charley Lake Preserve water connection. The agreement is for the municipal water supply to serve a residential subdivision in North Oaks for 63 single family lots located along Hodgson Road north of Chippewa Middle School.
- Approved the application for an off-sale liquor license for JJ's Wine and Spirits, which will be located at 167-169 West County Road E.
