Council Connection

At its February 17th meeting, the City Council took the following actions:

- Adopted a motion to waive the City's right to purchase the existing library building from Ramsey County to allow the possible conveyance of the building to the Mounds View School District
- Accepted the feasibility report for the Turtle Lane Neighborhood and Schifsky Road Reconstruction project and established a public hearing date of March 16, 2015 for this project

New Website for Rice Creek Commons

Development plans highlighted for the former TCAAP site

Ramsey County has launched a new website for Rice Creek Commons to provide information about the development of the former Twin Cities Army Ammunition Plant (TCAAP), located at the intersection of I-35W and Highway 10 in Arden Hills. Visit: www.ricecreekcommons.com

Invasive Plants: They're Here

Environmental Speaker Series continues March 18 at 7 p.m.

We've heard plenty about invasive aquatic species (such as zebra mussels) that can overrun an area after they arrive. But you probably didn't know that invasive plants have been discovered right here in Shoreview. Find out how you can spot them and help prevent them from spreading on Wednesday, March 18 at 7 p.m. in the Shoreview City Council Chambers. More info >>
